CHARGES PROBERS
PLAYING POLITICS
TO DISGRACE ARMYArmy Officer Turns Upon House Committee And Charges Them
With Injecting Partisan Politics In Probe.

"It Was Not a Republican or Democrat Army But An American Army" He Flings At The Committeemen

WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 3. — (Associated Press)—Turning sharply upon the House war investigating committee as a whole, Chas. G. Dawes, former head of the Army Supply Procurement Service in France, told one of them today that the value of their work had been rendered useless through injection of partisan politics.

"I bitterly resent this effort to reflect upon the entire army because some poor devil blundered in Switzerland," he shouted.

"You cannot put a blotch on the army. What the hell did we go in for, to steal money? It was not a Republican or a Democratic war. It was an American war and yet as a rule these committees try to bring in partisan politics.

"You could use your time investigating to a better advantage right here trying to save distasteful government waste. You could save more money for the people. But as to France you haven't got evidence to make a case if one existed, and I don't believe it does."

Asked about grafters who followed the American army to France, Mr. Dawes said:

"Yes, they were there, some of the most despicable characters on earth, trying to help the army by selling it things it needed at exorbitant prices. There was one man we caught and deported. He was a traitor and I wish we could have shot him."

Mr. Dawes ripped out a streak of oaths as he took up the attempt in some quarters to criticize General Pershing.

"It will be 25 or 50 years before Pershing's place in history is fixed," he said. "He could not have won the war had he sought to put popularity above duty. And let me tell you, the doughboys now complaining will live to see the day when they will be proud that they fought under him."

Declaring authority and responsibility in the army should be centralized in peace time as well as during war, General Dawes said the American army was "deteriorating again into a bureaucracy which is bound to prove inefficient."

"You members of Congress who listen to every whisperer who comes running to you with a tale of woe are largely responsible," he shouted.

General Dawes declared the government was purchasing its supplies "in the same wasteful and disgraceful manner as the army did when it went into the war."

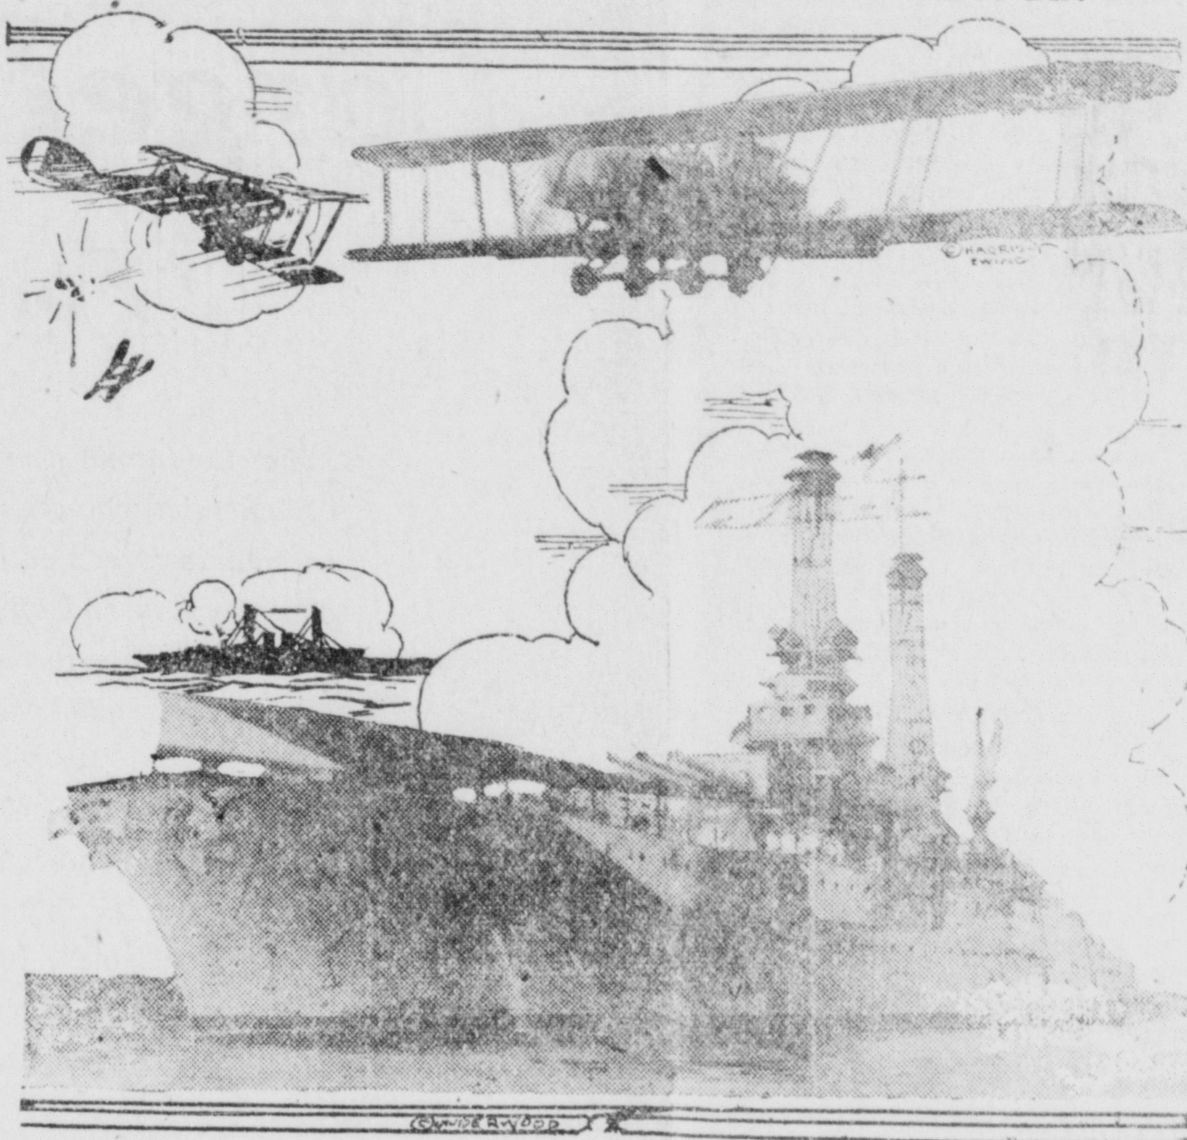

DEFER ACTION
UNTIL LATER

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, February 3. — Presentation of the Railroad Employees' view of the carriers' plea for immediate abrogation of national agreements was deferred when the Federal Railroad Labor Board met today.

It had been announced that B. M. Jewell, acting president of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor would reply to the statement made Monday by Brigadier General W. W. Atterbury on behalf of the association of railway executives.

The board, however, was not prepared to hear Mr. Jewell and set ten o'clock Monday morning for his statement.

BATTLEPLANES OR BATTLESHIPS—WHICH WILL IT BE?

One of the army's biggest bombing planes—the Martin bomber—and the pride of the U. S. navy, the U. S. S. New Mexico.

Should the United States proceed with its tremendous building program which calls for more massive battleships costing $40,000,000 each, or should it divert this money toward aviation and depend upon its air force for coast defense and aggressive warfare if necessary? That's what congressional committees are now debating. Brig. Gen. Mitchell, actively in charge of the air forces, has asserted before committees that with the development of aerial attack the present method of coast defense is obsolete. Proponents of airplane development point out that Great Britain is about to change her entire policy of coast defense. The navy is now building seven new floating fortresses at a cost of more than $40,000,000. It is to halt this program and other plans that members of the army committee are working. Representative Anthony of Kansas, chairman of the house appropriations sub-committee, has said he will take up with the House naval committee the subject of formulating a joint request with the navy department for a battleship to be made a target for aerial bombardment to decide by practical test the worth of the heavy ships.

Railroad Workers Claim Operators Endeavoring to Destroy Union by Requests Made

Arguments Against Abrogation Of Wage Agreement Laid Before Wilson.

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, February 3.—Arguments against abrogation of the national wage agreements between the railroads and their employees, already laid before President Wilson and members of Congress by brotherhood leaders, were presented today to the Railroad Labor Board.

Since the request of W. W. Atterbury, of the Pennsylvania Lines, for relief from these agreements was laid before the board Monday, representatives of the employees have been preparing their rebuttal, which B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, was to present.

Mr. Atterbury declared the railroads' need for economies which he said could be put into effect was so urgent that many of the roads faced bankruptcy and there was not time to confer with employees on the abrogation of the agreement.

"We are convinced," said a telegram to President Wilson, signed by Mr. Jewell and six other organization leaders, "that he (Mr. Atterbury) wishes to take advantage of the temporary unemployment and the unfortunate economic conditions of the railroad workers, which the railroads themselves have intensified, to crush our labor organization.

"We shall show that there is no economic justification for wage reductions, and that a reduction in the general cost of living is not dependent on a reduction in our wages and that of other wage earners."

UNITED STATES
MUST BE PARTY
SAYS TARDIEU

(By Associated Press)

Paris, February 3.—Andre Tardieu, former High Commissioner to the United States, in criticizing today in the Chamber of Deputies the last Paris conference of the Allies declared:

"There can be no capitalization, mobilization or discounting of the German debt until the United States is a party to the agreement."

The conference of experts, which was to have been in Brussels, has been postponed, it was officially announced today.

NAB SHOPLIFTERS
IN CHILLICOTHE

(By Associated Press)

Chillicothe, February 3.—Following receipt of complaint of shoplifting, police today arrested Walter Brock, alias W. E. Brown, and wife of Baltimore and Washington, D. C., as they were boarding a train.

Police say admissions they have made lead them to believe that the pair has been operating in larger middle western cities and is wanted elsewhere.

STATE VETERINARIAN IS HELD NEGLIGENT

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, February 3.—The special legislative committee investigating prevalence of tuberculosis in cattle on the state prison farm at London made a report to the House today in which Dr. Theodore Burnett, state veterinarian, is criticized for his alleged neglect to test the state owned herds and to quarantine and segregate the tubercular cattle.

Declares Primary Election Only Proper Manner To Select Nominee

Announces His Intention To Fight Any Move To Return To Way

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., February 3.—Governor Davis today came out flatly against a movement on foot in the state among Republican politicians to abolish the direct primary and return to the old convention system.

In a statement issued at the Governor's office today it was declared the Governor would "fight all attempts to go back to the old order of political control of the nominating machinery."

"I am a thorough believer in party sponsorship and party responsibility," said the Governor. "There should undoubtedly be some such sponsorship and responsibility with reference to the person nominated for public office. But I am utterly out of sympathy with any policy that would in any way abridge the fundamental right of the people to choose their public officials."

HUGE BATTLESHIPS
REMAIN THE BASIS OF NAVAL STRENGTH

Naval Board Insists Submarine And Seaplane Have Not Supplanted The Battleship As Leading Unit of Naval Power

No Other Nation Can Take Exception To An Adequate Naval Program of United States is Decision Of The Board

WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 3. — (Associated Press)—The major ship remains the basis of seapower, and those who argue that the airplane and the submarine have supplanted it are asking the country to "accept hopes for accomplishments," the Navy General Board says in a report to Secretary Daniels, made public today.

"The General Board, having kept in touch with naval progress along all lines," says the report, "reiterates its belief in the battleship as forming the principal unit of the fleet. Without them the United States cannot hope to cope with existing navies."

Urging that "equality in power be the continuing naval policy of the United States," the board says there is "no thought of instituting international competitive building," and that "no other nation can in reason take exception to such a position."

"It cannot justly be construed as a challenge," the report continues. "A policy of equal or substantially equal armament may well tend to diminish their growth and to lessen the danger of sudden war."

The report, signed by Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, president and former commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Fleet, was approved by Secretary Daniels and was transmitted by him to the Senate Naval Committee for its information in considering pending disarmament and "naval holiday" resolutions.

GOVERNOR WILL SIGN BILL AND
NAME OFFICIAL ON CLOSING DAY

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., February 3.—Governor Davis announced today that he would sign the Miller prohibition enforcement bill passed in the House yesterday as soon as it reaches him, would appoint a prohibition commissioner as soon as a suitable candidate can be found and that he intends to remove from office local enforcement officers who do not enforce the prohibition of the Crabbe act. The Governor said he was satisfied the Miller bill protects bona fide private homes from search.

The Governor indicated he would not authorize the maximum number of prohibition inspectors of 20 provided for in the bill.

48,000 IDLE
IN BIG PARADE

(By Associated Press)

Copenhagen, February 3.—A procession of the unemployed estimated to number 48,000 carrying flags left the city hall square at one o'clock this afternoon, marching toward the Parliament building and the King's palace, demanding work.

LAWYER DIES

Dublin, February 3.—Nine policemen were killed or wounded today when two lorries ran into an ambulance between Drumkeen and New Pallas, County Limerick.

BUREAU ADOPTS
30 RESOLUTIONS
ON CLOSING DAY

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, February 3.—Among a sheaf of 30 resolutions adopted today by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation at its closing session were six relating to taxation problems to be taken in a measure as the legislature program of ruralities.

Resolutions favoring a state wide rural police system; farmer representatives on the Ohio Public Utilities Commission, Ohio Tax Commission, Federal Reserve Board and United States Interstate Commerce Commission; a debt limitations for all taxing districts; observance of present tax limitations; enactment of laws to conserve our natural food resources; graduated income tax and inheritance tax were also among those adopted.

Officers elected by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation were O. E. Bradfute, Xenia, president of the newly appointed board of directors and D. M. Odaffer, Bucyrus, vice president. New executive committee members are Clarence Henry Hebron; H. W. Tomb, Bloomville; E. A. Brown, Clarksburg.

KRAMER ORDERS
LIQUOR CENSUS OF WHOLESALERS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, February 3.—A census of all liquor in the possession of wholesale druggists in various parts of the country has been ordered by Prohibition Commissioner Kramer to determine how long the present ban against withdrawal of intoxicants from bonded warehouses shall remain in force.

When this supply is exhausted, officials declared, provision will have to be made to enable the wholesalers to replenish their stocks for the benefit of the retailers.

SO WEAK SO NERVOUS

How Miserable This Woman Was Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toomsboro, Ga.—"I suffered terribly with headache all the time, was so weak and nervous I didn't know what to do, and could not do my work. My trouble was deficient and irregular periods. I read in the papers what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to give it a trial. I got good results from its use so that I am now able to do my work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to mine and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. F. PHILLIPS, Toomsboro, Ga.

Weak, nervous women make unhappy homes, their condition irritates both husband and children. It has been said that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," irritability and headache arise from some displacement or derangement of a woman's system. Mrs. Phillips' letter clearly shows that no other remedy is so successful in overcoming this condition as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ANNUAL FISH AND GAME BANQUET BREAKS RECORD

Thirteen Hundred and Fifty Men From All Parts of City and County Attend Greatest Event of Kind in The State.

Big Event Moves Off Without A Hitch And Wonderful Management Is Shown.

Need Of Auditorium Such As Armory Would Afford,
Brought To Forefront.

With a magnitude never before equalled by any event of its kind in the state the annual banquet of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association was held at Memorial Hall Wednesday night.

Attendance records of former years were broken. There were 1350 tickets sold. This number exceeded by three or four hundred any previous estimates that had been made concerning the number in attendance.

Although preparation had been made to feed but two tables when the great hall was filled the second time with nearly 600 men there were 200 still downstairs waiting to be fed.

Turkey, with all the trimmings, had been prepared in such quantities that all were given liberal helpings and even those at the last serving were treated in so hospitable a manner that some who had already been served were sorry they had not waited for the last spread.

Excellent Service

Each time the hall was filled with hungry Fish and Gamesters the waiters were on the job. Those members of the association who drew the serving assignment failed to give in before the attack of the hungry hundreds and worked fast and accurately.

When the first six hundred had been served the waiters were on the job with rolled up sleeves and in less than forty minutes had cleared the tables, washed the dishes, redecorated and re-set and had the turkey served when the next six hundred trooped in.

Hardly had these been seated when the word came that another two hundred were waiting down stairs and that these too must be fed. Those at two tables were asked to occupy the balcony when they had finished and again the waiters fell to with dish pan and wash rag.

An almost inexhaustible supply in kitchen made it possible to feed the number that had not been expected.

The waiter's committee was headed by Grant Coffman, chairman; Harry J. Biles, vice chairman; and Glen Woodhamsen, captain.

Movie Entertain

For the entertainment of those who were waiting to be served there were four reels of moving pictures shown in the auditorium on the second floor. Pathe News and two comedies that were really funny made up the bill.

It was announced that one thousand persons saw the show. It was in charge of R. J. McLean, manager of the Palace Theater, who gave his services for the evening.

Oppose House Bill

Representing the State Fish and Game Department, J. A. Struber, assistant to Chief Game Warden A. C.
Baxter was present and asked that the assembly take action in protest to House Bill 59 which is now before the House at Columbus.

The bill proposes that the fishing season be only between June and August. In response to a vote asked by Mr. Struber the assembly was unanimous that a telegram be sent immediately asking that the bill be defeated.

Mr. Struber stated that if such a bill passes it will throw over 700 fishermen out of employment, cut down to a big extent the fish supply in the markets and at the same time allow ordinary citizens to go fishing only in "dog days."

Plenty of Music.

Almost every minute of the evening there was plenty of jazz music of the jazziest kind. Heber Brothers Orchestra played with tireless pep and was encored time and again.

Perhaps the most popular feature of the entertainment was the playing of Harry Bromfield, expert accordionist, of Cincinnati. Bromfield's handling of the instrument was the best ever heard in this city. He played for the entertainment of the movie crowds and then alternated tirelessly with banqueters. He also played with the orchestra.

As the last diners were at the table the hall was filled while Bromfield and the orchestra gave a concert by playing any number that was called for.
The banqueters joined in singing.

In connection with this entertainment Harry J. Biles danced the "Arkansas Traveler" in real style and brought down the house.

Armory Agitated.

Toastmaster Nolin Hathaway called attention of the diners to the fact that if the proposed National Guard armory is erected here that the problem of handling such gatherings as the Fish and Game Banquet will be solved.

"In such a building as that" he declared "we might all sit down together and enjoy these banquets as one body instead of having three separate servings."

Captain Paul, who has been authorized to recruit a machine gun company was on hand to enlist any persons desiring to join.

Ex-Mayor Was There

I. S. Myers, former Mayor of Akron, and member of the State Board of Agriculture was among the out-of-town guests and stated that in all his life he had never seen anything to equal the Fayette County Fish and Game Banquet.

"I was at a banquet in New York City several days ago," he said, "and although it was a continental sport organization there were 250 in attendance. They believed this wonderful. I told them that next week I was going to attend a sport association banquet in a little city in Ohio where three times that many would attend."

Mr. Myers was impressed by the magnitude of the affair and with the admirable skill and efficiency with which it was managed in every department. He marveled when he saw business men, farmers, the most dignified, and the most democratic in fact men from all walks of life, get together and wash dishes with as much skill as if it were a daily occurrence.

President Was Busy

In most organizations it is customary for the president to put on an anstere look and sit back while the subordinates do the work. But not so in the Fish and Game Association. President Morris Baker was one of the busiest men of the event. When the tables were to be cleared and the dishes washed he was on the job with coat off and sleeves rolled up.

Then there were the other heads of the committees, each assisted by a loyal corps of workers. J. E. McLean headed the Banquet Committee; Charles Allen, headed the Menu and Kitchen Committee; Walter Craig was chairman of decoration; C. A. Cave of reception; Judge Rell G. Allen, the invitations; John Sheppard, the hall committee, and Harry M. Rankin, the credentials.

There were three men who were forced to stay in the background and work but their efforts completed the success of the whole affair. It was the check room committee. Hundreds of coats and hats were handled in most efficient manner. Earl Barnett was chairman of the check room committee.

The work of the decorating committee had also been faithfully executed. The tables were resplendent with red and white carnations and potted flowers. These were sold to the banqueters.

Toastmaster Hathaway

Another tireless worker of the evening who contributed much to its success was Nolin Hathaway. In the role of toastmaster for three tables of diners he kept the fun going and the crowd in action.

Quantities of Food

Among the great quantities of food that was served to almost 1400 banqueters was: Fifty turkeys, two barrels of cranberries, scores of bunches of celery; gallons of olives and thousands of buns. The many tubs of brick ice cream and the endless amount of butter was the product of the Sunlight Creameries.

SWEDEN ALSO IN AFTER WASH OF WORLD WAR

Stockholm. (By Mail)—Sweden like the United States, is undergoing a period of economic readjustment involving the closing down of factories and reduction of wages in an effort to cut the cost of production.

Swedish manufacturers declare they are compelled to do this in order to place their manufactures on a level which will enable them to compete with German, American and English production. Many of the factories and mechanical lines began in December to dismiss their workers gradually by laying off ten to twenty percent of them weekly. When the employees inquired why this was done they were informed that the scale of wages averaging the equivalent of $4.40 a day at the present rates of exchange, must be cut. They were told that unless they accepted such a reduction the shop would be closed.

In most cases the workmen refused and the factories were shut down for part of this month; but a reaction against this policy became noticeable before the beginning of the new year.

New agreements between employers and workers usually are made in many lines at the beginning of the year. This time there was a collision of the workmen's demands for higher wages with the employers' announcement that they would have to be cut.

"prohibition in America has come to stay—of that you may be certain."

"The people are settling down under it," he continued "and I believe that if put to a vote, 75 per cent of the electorate would support its continuance. There is not the slightest chance that the law against alcoholic drinks will ever be repealed."

SET FINAL DAY FOR COMPLETION OF RELIEF WORK

Fayette County Has Given Only Half of Amount To Save Starving Children.

Necessary To Raise Enough By Saturday of Next Week To Save Six Hundred More Babies.

Fayette county must not lag in its efforts to subscribe its quota for European War Relief. It was decided Thursday morning at a conference of war relief committeemen.

Plans were laid whereby an appeal to people of Fayette county will be carried through the press, by letter and personal interview, in bringing the matter to a close on Saturday, February 12th, at an hour which will be set at a later date.

Fayette county's part in the great work of relief for starving thousands of women and children in the devastated districts of Europe is to care for 1200 war orphans. This requires a sum of $12,000. To date, the county has raised enough money to care for 600 orphans.

During the last two or three weeks the campaign has been under way and although extreme efforts have not been made the people of the county have met the appeal with only half the amount. The committee feels that the completing half of the quota will be gained with the final week of campaign ending a week from Saturday.

Everyone will be asked to get behind the movement. A special appeal will be made to the women and school children will be enlisted in the cause. From now until Saturday, February 12, people of Fayette county are being asked to acquaint themselves with the true facts of the case as it is presented through the press from day to day.

BOWLERS POSTPONE WEDNESDAY GAME

There was no league bowling on the Y. M. C. A. alleys Wednesday night. Because every member of the two teams wanted to attend the Fish and Game Banquet the Sunlight and the Wilkin bowlers agreed to postpone their game until next Wednesday evening which is an open date.

Although the Y. M. C. A. basketball team is playing Thursday evening the Y. M. C. A. bowling team will meet the Newspapers. The big game of the week is scheduled for Friday evening with the Upholsterers and Business Men coming together.

CHILD IS SENT TO COUNTY HOME

A case that has been attracting attention and aid of the charitable organizations of the city was ended Wednesday morning when little Doris Swift, the seven year old daughter of Ervin Swift, was sent to the Children's Home through action taken in the juvenile court.

The condition of the child was one that excited sympathy. Although seven years old she is hardly able to walk and goes toddling about by grasping at objects for support, due to it is claimed, to improper attention. Two physicians pronounced her condition due to malnutrition and commonly known as "rickets." The mother and father protested strongly against the child being removed from them.

It was thought advisable to place little girl in the Home until she has recovered. It is believed that she will be able to go into school next year.

TWO GAMES LOST FOR WASHINGTON BY THREE POINTS

By the closest margins possible the two Washington High School basketball teams lost two games to Hillsboro Wednesday evening on the Hillsboro floors.

Washington High was defeated by one point. The score was 9 to 8. Hillsboro led at the end of the first half 7 to 6.

Guarding featured the game on the part of both teams. Washington was leading 8 to 7 until the last minute or two of the contest and then Hillsboro made the winning basket. Few games have been fought more furiously.

Washington's lineup was Case and Rogers at forward; Deen at center; Perrill and Flee at guard.

By an equally close score the Girls Varsity lost 7 to 9 to the Hillsboro Girls Varsity. The game was close all the way and hard fought.

The Washington lineup was Portia Prownell and Bernadine Norris at center; Helen Kerney and Elizabeth Morris at forward; and Gale Bowen and Florence Bliss at guard.

CAR RECOVERED IN SPRINGFIELD

A Buick automobile stolen from Robert King in Greenfield a week or ten days ago, has been located in Springfield through the efforts of Sheriff N. B. Hall, and will be returned to the owner at once.

Sheriff Hall Thursday received notice from the Springfield Chief of Police that the car was being held there. No trace of the thieves was left behind.

MEN ARE TAKEN TO PEN AND WORKS

Frank Diaz confessed diamond thief and John Culberson, sentenced from the Juvenile Court, were escorted to Columbus, Thursday morning, in the custody of Deputy Sheriff A. C. Nelson.

Diaz was taken to the penitentiary to begin an indeterminate sentence, and Culberson was placed in the workhouse for a long term.

The Ysleta District

It is difficult for people, in this great agricultural state, where it rains on the just and the unjust, notwithstanding annual complainings and gloomy prophecies, with sufficient regularity to insure bumper crops in one or the other of the great staple commodities and generally good big average crops of all kinds, to realize just what a struggle people in the great arid sections of the country have to obtain water and what surprising success they are making of what seemed, only a few years ago, a hopeless task.

Man is resourceful and not to be denied, it seems, when he sets out to accomplish a purpose.

The great Elephant Butte Dam has reclaimed tens of thousands of acres of arid lands and "made the desert blossom" with abundant crops. Man's ingenuity and man's determination have wrought wonders in the desert sections and his work, stupendous as it is, is scarcely well into the initial stages.

Just a few years ago Chinese gardeners were cultivating, intensively, several hundred acres of bottom land down the Rio Grande river from El Paso in the Ysleta district. To raise crops at all it was necessary to divert water from the Rio Grande river some half dozen miles above their truck patches.

The methods were primitive, the water supply uncertain because the Rio Grande at El Paso is not very much of a river. So far as the volume of water, flowing over its sandy bed is concerned, Paint Creek from Bainbridge south to its mouth, surpasses it. As a consequence El Paso, from the time it grew beyond the desert settlement size, lived out of tin cans. The farming and gardening in Ysleta district was a negligible factor in contributing to the food supply.

Now one can ride for twenty miles or more straight away down the Rio Grande through tens of thousands of acres of the most prosperous farming and gardening sections in all outdoors. One can see wagons loaded with bales of cotton rolling along the paved highways to market. There are some six or eight thousand acres given over, exclusively, to raising cotton alone in that section, to say nothing of the other tens of thousands of acres producing bumper crops in everything that grows. Great trees line the highways on each side with their branches meeting overhead. Handsome farm residences, fences and all the improvements one might expect to see in Ohio, Iowa, Illinois or Kentucky, can be seen in every direction. And only a few years ago all that section was a desert waste fit for nothing.

What has wrought the miracle? The Elephant Butte Dam by holding back the flood waters in the higher sections and feeding that water out as needed during the growing season has reclaimed these thousands of acres of the desert.

Of course there is nothing marvelous about irrigation. Generally speaking that's true, but there is something decidedly unusual about the irrigation and the reclamation of these thousands and thousands of acres in the Ysleta region and it is worthy of mention because we Americans are inclined to accept these wonderful achievements as a matter of course without really appreciating what the facts are. One is inclined to pass through the Ysleta district, marvel at its beauty and prosperity, blink his eyes a little when told that the land right in the desert can't be purchased for less than $1,000 an acre and then dismiss the whole subject with the answer—irrigation.

Put whence this water for irrigation purposes. The Rio Grande river was an insufficient source of supply only a few years ago. What now? The Elephant Butte Dam. But that might lead to under appreciation of the vast feat accomplished.

The great dam is something like one hundred and twenty-five miles from the Ysleta district—if one goes in a straightaway over the mesas and through the mountains by automobile—and farther yet by train part way and then by automobile, because the great dam is not on the railroad line.

But that's not the end of the quest for information. There are no irrigation ditches leading from the dam to the Ysleta district. So far as outward appearances go the gardens and the farmers in the Ysleta district still get the precious water supply from the placidly flowing Rio Grande, but now it furnishes the needed supply in abundance. Why? Because the ingenuity of man, his energy and his dollars have reinforced the river and made it the carrier of the water from the great dam to the Ysleta district. After reclaiming thousands of acres further up the surplus water is diverted into the lazy old Rio Grande and that sunny, shiftless, yet shifting old river that flows for so many miles along our southern boundary has been put to work toting water.

That is the wonderful part of this irrigation work. The results seem, somehow, just to come along naturally. The water for the crops comes to Ysleta, apparently, as it does in the great corn belt states—just comes. There is no evidence of any artificial means, nothing to show how it all is brought about. Nothing but the Rio Grande flowing on toward the Gulf of Mexico as it has for ages and if one doesn't ask questions and get at the facts one is very likely to miss the real wonder of the Ysleta district.

In these days, when we read and hear so much of the wrong doings of the few criminals it is encouraging to look about, search out and gratefully contemplate the marvelous achievements of the many who go quietly about their work.

When we see such immense projects going forward successfully it is impossible not to conclude that the world is growing better and man is improving. —J.H.H.

POETRY FOR TODAY

TO FEBRUARY
February, slinky cuss,
You are holding out on us!
Hence we rise and make a fuss,
You're a tightwad—we can prove it!
Here's the staid; you can't remove it:
Last year you gave twenty-nine Days, some wretched and some fine,
This year only twenty-eight,
Though we pay the self-same rate!
Why the shortage, February?
Are you stingy, or contrary?
Why deprive us of a day,
Without cutting down your pay?
Can't you give a birthday, maybe,
To each 29th born baby?
February, much we fear
You've become a profiteer!
With the cheats you now are rated
And may be investigated!
—Strickland Gilliam in Farm Life.

WEST AFRICA NOW WANTS HOME RULE DELEGATION IS SENT

(By Associated Press)
London, (By Mail)—West Africa is the latest country to see home rule. A mission, representative of educated opinion in British West Africa, has arrived here to urge upon the Colonial Office a number of reforms in the internal administration of the four West African colonies and protectorates, Sierra Leone, the Gold Coast, Nigeria and the Gambia, says the London Times.

The Mission has been sent to this country by the National Congress of British West Africa, and seeks in the first place the creation of a legislative council which will be composed one-half of members chosen by the crown and one half of members elected by the people, and for a house of assembly which would have complete control of the revenue and expenditure.

As to local government, the mission urges that municipal corporations should be established in each of the principal towns of the colonies.

The judicial system of British West Africa, in particular Nigeria, is criticized by the mission which states that at present "it is the practice to appoint to judicial offices Europeans who have not received any legal training and who are not competent to exercise judicial functions."

Among other suggested reforms they seek: The establishment of a West African University; the removal of the color bar in the West African medical service and the introduction of immigration laws to prevent the influx of undesirable aliens to British West Africa.

PLAN PUBLIC WORK TO ALLEVIATE THE EMPLOYMENT NEED

(By Associated Press)
London, (By Mail)—The proposal by the government to alleviate unemployment by big roadmaking and house building schemes and other work of public utility is called inadequate by the leaders of the unemployed.
Official returns given the number of registered workless in the United Kingdom on December 10 as 591,074, an increase of 70,721 during the preceding fortnight. London alone accounts for 141,533 and the proportion of men to women out of work is roughly as 3 to 1.

Labor leaders say these figures are incomplete. They declare that at least 250,000 other manual workers and as many clerical workers are out of jobs, though not on the government books. These would bring up the workless army to well over 1,000,000 and counting their dependents, a grand total is arrived at of close upon 1,500,000 sufferers from lack of work in one way or another.

Clamor for reopening trade with Russia is growing and the chairman of the London Unemployed Council has told The Associated Press representative that by acting in concert with all other labor organizations, they were confident of being able to force the government's hands.

Wider Distribution of Property Ownership

Wider, more general distribution of property ownership, most authorities agree, is essential to the peace and welfare of mankind.

Many plans to accomplish this have been advanced, but most of them do not provide for the use of the tools already at hand for this purpose, but contemplate building a whole new mechanism.

The corporation, or company, with its shares of stock was created for exactly this purpose—to divide among many people the ownership of property.

Let us tell you now we are trying to accomplish this end in connection with a 7% Preferred Stock.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Miss Edna Ferber, the Creator of "Mrs. McChesney" and "Dawn O'Hara," is entertaining hundreds in Columbus this week with recitals of homely every day men and women. The Journal says:

That's the whole trick of the Ferber style, if it may be called a trick. She doesn't try to tell about the doings of men and women of a type unfamiliar to the bulk of readers of magazine and story, but she does expose the little foibles, the personal peculiarities and the tried and true virtues of the rank and file.

She read a love story last night. It didn't follow the adventures of a man in a high silk hat and everlasting evening clothes. Instead it hinged on the loyalty of a very ordinary variety of bachelor brother with three unmarried sisters, more or less attractive, and a death-bed promise. The latter, Miss Ferber says, "should be broken as lightly as it is given seriously."

With indefinite attention to detail the sordid every day life of that bachelor was held up to the sight of the audience, which rejoiced when he fell in love, despaired when he had to let his sweetheart go because of those ubiquitous sisters, brightened when one by one these were married—but too late for Joe, the brother, to find happiness in a home of his own. The dramatic climax came when he drove these sisters out of his rose-furnished apartment because they came to remonstrate about his morals.

Edna Ferber is clever—so clever that she makes people forget it.

Mrs. Faith Pearce and Mrs. Ruth Sturgeon were hostesses to the fortnightly meeting of the Sugar Grove, W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pearce on Market street.

Mrs. Elva Post conducted the devotionals, and Mrs. Sturgeon read the business letters. Mrs. Leo Baughn, Mrs. Bess Lanum and Mrs. Clara Campbell each had excellent papers and there was a part of the program devoted to music.

The social hour was very enjoyable, the hostesses serving tempting refreshments.

Friday, February eighteenth is the date of the next meeting which will be held at Mount Eber School, at which time a Frances Willard program will be presented.

Jimmie Dice's "Pepsters" are announcing another dance for Friday evening, February fourth at the K. of P. Hall.

This popular orchestra is giving a series of delightfully informal dances and the one Friday evening is the second of the series.

The Bible Class of the Staunton M. E. Church met at the home of Miss Blanche Roberts Wednesday evening with nineteen members answering to roll call.

After the devotionals led by Mrs. Verna Drais, the lesson study was taken up by Mrs. Dale Miller and following the short business session there was a jolly social evening with Victrola music.

The next meeting was announced to be held at the home of Mrs. Verna Drais Wednesday evening, February the ninth.

Mrs. Mary Briggs, Mrs. Cora Brown, Mrs. Hedrick and Mrs. Elizabeth Bishop composed the quartet of hostesses entertaining the members of the Missionary Circle of the First Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at the Briggs home on East Temple street.

Hearts were used in decorating the rooms, and the Valentine idea was further carried out in the delicious refreshments served.

The women responded to roll call with scripture verses written on hearts.

A very interesting program was given, Mrs. Nettie Ballard's paper dealt with the Negro School in South Carolina, and Mrs. Nettie Wood had a paper on "The Famine in North China." Miss Mabel Briggs read an article "Women of the Orient," which Mrs. Carrie Willis followed by an excerpt from a Chinese paper describing the "Chinese Christmas," sent by her daughter, Miss Lina Willis. Miss Willis, who is engaged in Y. W. C. A. work in China, also enclosed a letter telling of the wonderful musicale given in English by two hundred and sixty Chinese on Christmas eve.

Mrs. Mindonna Kimney closed the program with a solo, "Hail Thee Own Way, Lord."

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lightell, and members of their theatrical company, who have been spending a few days with Mrs. Lightell's mother, Mrs. Maude Coffman and grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Harlow, left Wednesday night for Pittsburg to fulfill an engagement and continue on their circuit.

Mr. Lightell and company will return to New York the first of April, to introduce new features into their Keith specialty act, before starting on a spring tour.

Mrs. W. E. Robinson cordially extended the hospitality of her home on East Market street, for the February meeting of the C. W. B. M. of the Church of Christ, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lorea Perry was program leader and the subject of the afternoon's lesson was "The Bible and the Nations of China." Mrs. J. L. Cadwallader furthered this subject with a paper on "The Translations of the Bible into Chinese and Mrs. Charles Lewis discussed "Teaching the Bible in China."

Mrs. Mary Michael and Mrs. Clark Mershon played a pretty piano duet.

Mrs. George Osborne was in charge of the Hidden Answers.

Mrs. Robinson served appetizing refreshments.

For the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace Methodist Church, thirty women were assembled in the church parlors.

Devotionals were under the supervision of Mrs. C. A. Toeters and a letter from Bible woman whom the Society supports in Sienya China, was read.

Mrs. Frank Haines had a paper and Miss Fannie McLean conducted the Mystery Box.

The subject for the afternoon was "The Translation of the Bible in Chinese and Burmese."

Mrs. Margaret Colwell and Mrs. Barr joined the Society at this meeting.

The Good Hope Missionary Society enjoyed a meeting out of the ordinary and most delightful Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Perry, with Mesdames E. D. King, Hugh Sollars and A. C. Stenler the additional hostesses.

Mrs. Hayward King was leader of an interesting program, the general subject, "Tests," illustrated by the lives of President-elect Harding and Gen. George Washington. Articles were read by Mrs. Lewis French and Mrs. Stenler, a talk made by Mrs. L. J. Lewis; readings by Mrs. Rose Murray and Mrs. Robert Rodgers.

The remainder of the afternoon passed in pleasurable sociability, the hostesses serving delicious refreshments appropriate to George Washington's birthday. Individual cherry pies with whipped cream were topped with little flags and sandwiches, bon bons and Coffee were also served. The favors were celebration badges with hatchet and cherry.

Mrs. Perry's home was tastefully decorated with flags, hatchets and cherries.

Forty women, a number of guests of the different members, were present.

The society decided to give a benefit supper at Wayne Hall, Thursday evening the tenth, the public to be generally invited.

Thirty women of the Woman's Guild of the First Presbyterian Church were pleasantly entertained, Wednesday afternoon by Mesdames A. C. Henkle, B. F. Davis, Ernest Harvey, A. R. Stokesbury, R. R. Kibler, C. H. Thorndman, and Miller Minteden.

The meeting was the attractive Henkle home on South Main street. The hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Ellis Daugherty entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club at a delightful six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening. The daintily appointed table had for its central decoration a large pink begonia in luxuriant blossom.

The second of two very charming Bridge parties this week found Mrs. Roy E. Brown hostess on Wednesday afternoon.

Again four tables of guests were at play and an elaborate luncheon served. Mrs. D. H. C. Bowen won a corsage bouquet as the game's trophy.

Shell pink carnations nodded from tall vases throughout the rooms and smaller cut glass vases on the tables held sweet peas and freesias.

Miss Dorothy Dick assisted the hostess.

Complimenting the birthday of Dr. David H. Rowe, his mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Rowe and sisters, Misses Florence and Elsie Rowe, entertained with an enjoyable family dinner.

Another chapter of the romances of British stage peeresses was closed when Lady Victor Paget, formerly Olive May, famous Gaiety girl, was granted a divorce on grounds of desertion and misconduct. She was given the custody of her two small children.

Her husband is a brother of the Marquis of Anglesea, one of the oldest peerages of England. Her wedding was one of the distinct social successes in January, 1913, but her husband went to France during the war and refused to live with her after November, 1914.

The divorce caused the question to arise as to whether there is likely to be success in the matrimonial adventures of actresses who marry into the peerage.

But with the happy married lives of several well-known examples the percentage seems to be largely in favor of "happiness."

Among the happy married careers for actresses is the case of Rosie Boote, who is now the Marchioness of Headfort. There is also Zena Dore, now the Honorable Mrs. Maurice Brett, her husband being the son of Lord Esher.

On the other hand there are other "stage" divorces pending. Among them are Iris Hoey against J. W. Leeds, Lily St. John, who married Major Trygvengen, famous Norwegian airman, and Margaret Bannerman whose husband, Pat Somerset, is the leading man for Edith Day.

For years the shortage in the male element in Washington society has been a problem of nerve racking concern to social leaders and ambitious mothers with debutante daughters. The situation, though hardly considered a laughing matter to the hostesses concerned, has afforded much amusement to outside visitors and social circles in other cities.

Notwithstanding the large number of young army and navy officers on duty in the departments and the extensive diplomatic corps, both of which are in everlasting demand, there are not enough young men to fill the dance cards of the young debs at a large coming out ball.

With the new administration coming which has been taken as a signal for the doors of an official social life to open wide for the most brilliant of all seasons, the same question comes up: "Where shall we get enough young men?" Washington hostesses are at their wits' ends.

To show how really serious the matter is, it is now said that young men presentable and well appearing in evening togs, who know what a knife at the dinner table is for and how to dance, are being paid $10 to escort a young woman to a dance, with her family's limousine thrown in. Of course this is not commonly acknowledged nor can it be said that the "exclusive Four Hundred" must resort to such desperate action, but it is reported that in one of the sets in Washington's social life it has become an established custom.

A social life in the capital is about as cut up and divided as a zigzag puzzle. It takes a new arrival an entire season to learn "Who's Who in Whose Circle." There's the small but exclusive set of old families, where all one needs is a family tree with roots extending to the beginning of time to obtain entrance, and a larger, though almost as exclusive one where wealth is a necessary attribute. There's the army and the navy set, the official set and the congressional distinctive for its true democracy from all other sets.

But in each and every one, the same cry has been raised each season all are more or less bound together by the same great problem, and none knows where they can find the answer to the question that tortures them annually: "Where, oh! where are the men?"

The situation is, of course, attributed to the few business openings for young men in the nation's capital as compared with other cities.

Miss Jenkins urges that the churches, schools and the Y. W. C. A. unite in a combined program to offer the girl in the rural districts more opportunities whether they be of a religious, educational or recreational nature. "I believe that the church, the school and the Association could unite in a worth while program which would enlarge the vision of these girls and which might contribute something of value along the line of rural psychology," she declares.

"Is it purely an economic pressure of a desire for the broader opportunities which the city is supposed to offer which has in many instances forced the girl in the rural districts of Ohio and West Virginia to leave home and enter some form of employment which brings her in contact with metropolitan life?"

This is the question which Miss Elizabeth Jenkins, New York representative of the County and District Department of the National Board, Young Women's Christian Association, is asking as she travels through the two states, surveying conditions as they exist throughout the rural districts. Miss Jenkins is at present in Cincinnati conferring with the staff of the Ohio and West Virginia Field Office of the Association, and has come to the conclusion that the present situation may be attributed to both causes.

"I believe the solution of this problem will be the development in the small town and country communities of opportunities for girls to earn a living which could be comparable at least to those in the city and present themselves as worth while propositions for these girls," she says. "Vocational guidance is a thing which might be used to meet the needs of the country girl, for she has her likes and dislikes, her pleasure or distaste for various occupations, just as the city girls have."

The crime wave in New York has been taken apart and inspected with some interesting results, according to John J. Lyons, secretary of state.

And first let it be known that newspaper men and chorus girls walk pretty nearly 100 per cent within the legal "thou shalt not" lines. Only one chorus girl has been up before a judge last year and the newspaper profession is represented by one each of the following: Publisher, editor, reporter, correspondent and advertising writer.

Clerks and chauffeurs, as a class, break the law most frequently. The two vocations ran a dead heat last year with 21 each.

The upholders of the law slipped somewhat in the upholding, breaches having been committed by four lawyers, one law clerk, one process server, four policemen, two patrolmen and one detective.

Piano movers, bricklayers, boxers, freight handlers, hackmen and pavers show up an honest lot. Only one of each was hauled to court last year. One steely jack took a legal tumble and 17 farmers ran amiss. Five who gave their vocation as "gentlemen" were found in the list. One added that

FORMER LOCAL MAN SPEAKS TO FARMERS

P. L. Mark, former local man who now resides at Westerville, was one of the speakers at the Ohio State University before Ohio farmers attending Farmers' Week.

Mr. Mark explained his experience in threshing soy beans, direct from standing rows. His harvester is the first of its kind to be used in Central Ohio.

The Ohio State Journal carried a picture of Mr. Mark and a few facts concerning his prominence in agricultural lines.

MARGUERITE CLARK in 'THREE MEN AND A GIRL'
In this charming picture Miss Clark appears as Sylvia Weston, a young woman who rebels against her proposed wedding with a rich old man whom she hated, and who later comes in contact with three bear-like men who hate womankind. She subsequently brings them to her feet by the magic of her personality and charm. Saturday: Polo No. 7 and Comedy "Hold Me Tight." Coming: "The Miracle Man."

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY First Show 6:45 p. m.
PEARL WHITE in 'THE THIEF'
"The Thief" was picked for Miss White because its story is one that will give her a wonderful opportunity to show her myriad of followers all over the world her real dramatic ability as distinguished from her work in serials. The homes of several millionaires of Long Island were used for settings for this picture and the gowns worn by Miss White were brought direct from Paris. Coming: Geo. Walsh in "The Plunger. ## MANY BAD CHECKS HAVE BEEN GIVEN BY ACCUSED MAN

Oscar Smith, in the county jail under $1000 bond on a charge of stealing an automobile belonging to W. H. Hewitt on January 27, will probably face more than one charge when he is tried.

Letters have come to the local postoffice for Smith and have been received by Sheriff Hall, which show that he is wanted for forgery by no less than half a dozen persons.

The ticket agent at the B. & O. station in Chillicothe writes that he desires Smith to send him money to make good a check which was passed there.

The Belmont Hotel in Wilmington writes that Smith beat it out of board and lodging and asks for a settlement.

One of the letters is from the First National Bank at Wilmington in which it requests Smith make good something in the way of signing his name to a check.

Still the letters continue to come and all for the same reason.

ELECTRIC RATE CASE COMES UP IN U. S. COURT

The case of The Washington Gas & Electric Company against the City of Washington, asking that the city be enjoined from enforcing certain electric rates which the plaintiff deems inadequate and confiscatory, and asking the court to allow a much greater rate, was up in the U. S. District court Wednesday, with Freeman T. Engleton representing the plaintiff Solicitor Junk and Attorney Logan of this city representing the city.

Both sides proffered several witnesses in the hearing for a temporary restraining order, after which arguments were made. The city fought against a temporary restraining order which would mean that the new schedule of rates would become effective at once pending the outcome of the hearing.

Briefs are to be filed this week and decision regarding the temporary restraining order is expected within the next ten days.

POSTOFFICE MAY BE MOVED DURING PRESENT MONTH

Active preparations are being made to move the postoffice from the Memorial Hall building to the Cherry Hotel block probably late this month, all depending on the speed with which the new quarters can be shaped for the office.

The present occupant of the main room to be utilized, David Schneider, is moving his stock of goods out, and within a few days a number of men will be put to work remodeling and redecorating the rooms to be used.

MEN ARE DRAWN FOR GRAND JURY

The names of fifteen men were drawn Thursday morning to compose the grand jury reporting at ten o'clock February 9th. The names drawn are:

CRACK SAFE GET $30,000

(By Associated Press)
St. Petersburg, Fla., February 3.—Robbers blew the safe of the State Bank at Largo, 16 miles south of here early today and got away with $30,000.

The cashier, who lives above the bank, was held up by two of the bandits. All telephone and telegraph wires leading from the town had been cut.

COURT CALLS FOR RECESS

(By Associated Press)
Williamson, W. Va., February 3.—Not a venireman was available for examination when Judge R. D. Bailey opened the circuit court here today and the 21 defendants on trial for alleged participation of the Mattewan battle took their places around the council table.

Judge Bailey promptly announced recess until this afternoon.

LENINE EFFORT TO RULE SOCIALISTS BEING CONTESTED

(By Associated Press)
Paris, (By Mail).—Lenine's attempt to rule and unite the socialists of the world and control their policies through the operations of the Third Internationale of Moscow is to be contested by the central party, or faction, of socialists. This party occupies a middle position between the extreme right, or moderate faction, of socialists and the extreme left, or radical faction. It was in order to organize their forces into a Fourth Internationale that a meeting of the Centrist Socialists of the world has been called in Vienna on February 22 next.

The center socialists are dissatisfied with both the Second Internationale and the Third Internationale of Lenine, leaders of that faction say. Joseph Gollomb, who claims to have represented the Socialist party of America at a meeting in Berne, Switzerland, December 5, which called a meeting at Vienna next February to form the proposed Fourth Internationale, declares that the socialists of the world have become impatient at the conduct of Lenine's Third Internationale of Moscow. The Russian organization, he declares, "is devoting itself chiefly to splitting the forces of socialism and of the workers."

JAP POPULATION NOW IS 77,005,510 IS ANNOUNCEMENT

Tokio, (By Mail).—The first census ever taken in Japan by modern methods showed that the population of the Japanese Empire number 77,005,510 while in Japan proper, exclusive of Korea, Formosa and Saghalien, there are 55,961,140 inhabitants. These figures are announced by the Census Bureau (called in Japanese official language the Bureau of National Power Investigation).

The actual figures prove that the annual estimates which have been taken were more than a million in excess of the truth. The estimate of population for 1918, based on a compilation of the local registers, was 78,261,856 or 1,235,346 more than the census of 1920 gives. For Japan proper the 1918 estimate was 57,070,963 or 1,109,795 more than the 1920 figures. The decrease for the Empire is 1.6 per cent; for Japan proper it is 1.9 per cent.

There are 124,856 more males than females in Japan proper. The males number 28,042,995 and the females 27,918,164. The total number of families in Japan proper is 11,222,053.

CARDINAL DIES AT AGE OF EIGHTY

Lisbon, (By Mail).—Information has been received here of the death of Cardinal Jose Sebastiao Netto, formerly Patriarch of Lisbon, who died in one of the Franciscan monasteries of Spain where he retired after the revolution, in 1910. He received the Cardinal's cap from the hands of King Louis I of Portugal in 1883. Previously he was Bishop of Angola and the Congo, where he was a missionary.

After the Portuguese republic abolished religious congregations in Portugal, Cardinal Netto left the country with all the other congregationalists and retired to a convent in Spain. He was 80 year old.

NEW PREMIER NOT FRIENDLY TO KING CONSTANTINE

(By Associated Press)
Athens.—Demetrios Rhalis, the new Greek Premier who succeeded Venizelos when the latter was defeated in the elections last Autumn, hates the sight of Venizelos and has by no means always been an admirer of Constantine, who now has been recalled as king.

Rhalis regards Venizelos as a political adventurer. This in part may be due to the fact that when Venizelos came from Crete to Athens and gained the political ascendancy, Rhalis' reputation as a politician was somewhat damaged.

In his long political career, the new premier has generally been at loggerheads with crown. He often had disputes with the late King George and it was not until Constantine was deposed by the entente powers that Rhalis really regarded him seriously. This action of the Entente, however, converted Rhalis to become a supporter of Constantine's cause, and since 1916 he has been devoted to that ruler.

Rhalis is one of the most interesting characters in Greece. He is a polished statesman and is often referred to as a "dear old man." (He is about 80).

BRITISH SAILORS DESERT VESSELS

London, (By Mail).—Large numbers of English seamen are deserting their ships in American ports and joining American vessels because of the higher pay they receive from American shipowners.

One magistrate before whom one of the deserters was arraigned called the practice "scandalous" and said it was prejudicial to Britain's mercantile service.

The man in question was fined 5 pounds and costs and his wages were impounded.

JEWELRY AGENT LOSES $35,000

(By Associated Press)
Cleveland, O., February 3.—John A. Severs, salesman for a New York jewelry firm was robbed of gems worth $35,000 by thieves who entered his room in a downtown hotel while he was absent last night. Other raids before dawn today, most of them on residences, brought the total loot of thieves' operations during the night to $48,000.

SPEED IS URGED IN RECRUITING GUARD COMPANY

Business and professional men and citizens in general are deeply interested in the speedy recruiting of the new National Guard company in this city, and are urging men of eligible age to enlist without delay.

The recruits are coming in slowly but the standard is exceptionally high and it is believed that the new organization will be one which will be the pride of both city and county.

Inquiries have been received from many young men in the rural districts as well as in this city, and a number of them will be enrolled within the next few days.

Capt. Paul, who has been authorized by Adjutant General Florence to recruit the company here, is located at the Fayette County Auto Club, where he receives applications from nine o'clock each morning until nine o'clock at night.

Obtaining an army for the city hinges on speedy organization of a military company in this city, for unless the company is organized, there will be no reason acceptable for an armory.

POTATO ACREAGE CUT 41 PERCENT

Ohio's potato acreage has decreased 41 per cent during the past 10 years—from 212,000 to 124,000 acres. An important factor in the decreased production is said to be diseased seed.

The average yield in Ohio last season was 100 bushels per acre, or considerably more than the average. Even 100 bushels per acre, growers say, however, is an unprofitable crop.

In an attempt to improve the crop yield, certified seed is being used for demonstrations in Ashtabula, Columbiana, Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Scioto counties. The project is being conducted by the county farm bureau in cooperation with the Ohio State University.

Some individual growers have secured excellent results from the importation of high class seed. Dr. E. E. Clayton of the Ohio State University says there is every reason to believe that growers as a whole can increase their yields and profits in this way.

The northern counties are importing Rural New Yorkers from Wisconsin and the southern counties, Early Ohio's from Minnesota.

FEW CONVENIENCES IN OHIO FARM HOMES

Home conveniences of Ohio farms are sadly lacking if the results of a survey conducted last summer by specialists of the Agricultural College Extension Service may be taken as a criterion.

A house-to-house survey was made in one typical township each of Madison, Athens, Crawford and Lorain counties.

Outstanding among the facts developed are that only 9 per cent of the homes have running water, less than 9 per cent have bath tubs, and but 56.3 per cent have washing machines of any kind, although 93.5 per cent of the laundry work is done at home. Only a fourth of the washing machines are run by power. Over 80 per cent of the farm families are using an outdoor closet that is not fly proof.

'RAIN FOR OHIO!

A little boy was recently asked by his teacher to give the name of the man who discovered America.

Without hesitation the youngster answered "Ohio."

The teacher explained, "Why, I'm surprised at you! Now you know well enough that Columbus discovered America!"

"Sure he did," replied the undismayed youngster, "but his last name was Ohio."

Is your butter always strictly fresh?

If you secure butter that comes to your dealer direct from the creamery, and that is churned daily, then you can always be sure of having strictly fresh butter. Otherwise you may have various qualities of butter.

Golmar is churned daily, and delivered direct to your dealer, thereby enabling him to keep you supplied with this wonderful spread—in exactly the same condition as you wish your butter to be in. Furthermore, when you place Golmar on your table you simply cannot tell any difference between it and the very best creamery butter in taste or texture.

Golmar is strictly vegetable—therefore wholesome, digestible—and stays fresh amply long enough to enable a small family to use a pound package. Golmar has the fresh creamery butter taste—the fresh creamery butter goodness—yet it costs you much less than creamery butter because it is made of the choice white cream of the coconut, and this is less expensive than dairy products.

Get a package of Golmar from your dealer and try it. Remember, that if it doesn't give you exactly the same satisfaction you now are getting from fresh creamery your money will be refunded.

GERMAN REDS MAKING PLANS FOR REVOLUTION

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, (By Mail)—German radical disciples of what is called here "Red Russian Terrorism," who say they are planning to overturn the present German government and establish a proletarian dictatorship, openly announce that they have drawn up lists of "capitalists and undesirables" who shall be killed when the revolution begins.

One of these men, a hotel waiter, who calls himself a "precinct leader," complained the other day that his list included nearly everybody around here who has influence, property or money. He said, a superior came to him one day and read a list of names, and announced these were to be the "precinct leaders" quota when the killing began. The waiter declared he acknowledged "orders" but thought the program was being carried too far. "As leader in this precinct I am expected to kill a lot of folks when the revolution gets under way," he said. "My list is certainly big enough. What do you think about that?" Apparently his opinion of his orders was very low, but when asked if he would carry them out of opportunity offered he merely laughed.

MATSUDA BARRED AT COLUMBUS

Letter Written By Local Fan to Promotor Haft Recalls Tainted Match Here Last Year.

Local sport fans are much interested in a letter appearing in Tuesday evening's Columbus Dispatch which was written by Thomas P. Clancey, this city and which resulted in Matty Matsuda, Jap wrestler, being withdrawn from a scheduled wrestling match by Promotor Al Haft, of Columbus.

Fans will recall without trouble that memorable night of January 2nd, 1920, when Matsuda was "defeated" by Nels Anderson, of Kenosha, Wis. In two straight falls in less time than it takes to tell what happened.

The Dispatch said: "Matty Matsuda who has asked for weeks to be given a trial in a semi-windup to a wrestling match in this city and had been given a chance on the bill next Friday night against Bill Schober will not appear."

"Promotor Al Haft Monday received a letter from a wrestling fan of Washington C. H. which caused the quick decision. The letter which appears below speaks for itself and made plain to Haft that the Jap was not needed on the bill."

"I will give Matsuda 10 minutes if he desires, that night to explain what happened at Washington C. H. last summer and also a Washington C. H. fan the same time to tell his side," said Haft. I want clean sport and welcomed the letter. At the same time I want to discourage any betting on matches here, for there is where trouble starts. No wrestler can appear on any of my bills who hasn't a clean slate, and I am now making an effort to get good men to fill in on the preliminary. But Matsuda will not appear against Schober. If he wishes to make a statement in public that night I will give him that chance."

The letter written by Mr. Clancey to Promotor Haft said in part:

"I note by the papers that you propose to hold a wrestling bout at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium next Friday evening at which you propose to use a certain Jap who claims to be a champion of his class."

"In the interests of clean sports, however, it is necessary sometimes to do things that we do not like to do and indeed I thought that everything had been done that was necessary to prevent this contestant from ever appearing in any wrestling events before the public for paid admissions anywhere in the state of Ohio.

"I sincerely trust that you can see your way clear to substitute some other contestant for the Jap and thus do the cause of clean athletics a real service."

"The wrestling fans of Washington C. H., Ohio, are not so short of memory as to forget what this contestant pulled on them and there are quite a few of them who attend your bouts. No less than five were at your exhibition last Monday night who remember that clean athletics and this fellow do not mix and if we are to attend in the future we do not care to be insulted by having this contestant appearing before us in the ring to let us know that we are assisting him to continue his crookedness on the unsuspecting."

"We appreciate that he is a wrestler of ability and all that, but the best interests of clean athletics demand that his slate be cleaned before he can continue in the game."

HARTMAN THEATER

COLUMBUS OHIO

Beginning Monday night, February 7, the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, O., offers the smart musical comedy "Irene," for an engagement of a solid week with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. Mail orders should be sent early, as the demand for seats will be unusually heavy, the seat sale opening Thursday of this week.

The book of "Irene" is by James Montgomery, author of "Going Up" and "Nothing But the Truth," the latter being the highly successful comedy in which Willie Collier scored so tremendous a success for a number of seasons. Harry Tierney has written a melodious and captivating score for the play, with a number of refreshing "hits," among others: "Alice Blue Gown," "We're Getting Away With It," "Sky Rocket," "Irene," "Castle of Dreams," and "The Last of the Party." The rollicking lyrics are by Joseph McCarthy and the staging by Edward Boyce of the Gaiety Theater, London.

The heroine, Irene, is a shop girl, who, through a visit to the country house of a customer of her employer's to inspect some unsatisfactory goods, is introduced to a male modiste in search of models. Garbed in her borrowed apparel, the pretty miss wins the heart not only of her benefactor but the audience as well. A highly diverting plot introduces situations of great interest and tension, ending satisfactorily to all concerned, which is as it should be in musical comedies.

The cast of "Irene" includes Dale Winter, Rollin Grimes, Jr., Hal Taggart, Marjorie Moore, Cal Haydn, Howard Freeman, Gladys Nagle, Marjorie Dalton, Dorothy Whitmore, Florence Mack, Jane Kearney, Raymond Crane and Earl Redding.

Thurston, Ohio's greatest product in the realms of the black art, makes his annual visit in Columbus the week of February 14. He will be a welcome guest at the Hartman Theatre, where capacity audiences always greet him and his diverting entertainment. It is announced that his "bag of tricks" includes many features of entirely new and novel character.
